

9/4/26 Work session

Called to order at 10am

Ed Spoor, Ed Pristov, and Lisa Linehan were present.

The trustees discussed the recent cross county event and the traffic implications for the township.

Ed Spoor stated that residents on Beringer Place had complaints about noise and light intrusion and trespassers cutting through their property.

Lisa stated that she reached out to the race coordinator to learn more details about the event.

Lisa stated that she will reach out to Spire ownership to schedule a meeting to discuss the issues with the event.

The trustees discussed the benefits of creating a committee with Spire and other safety forces to better coordinate future large events.

The trustees consulted the county prosecutor for a legal opinion.

The trustees discussed hiring part-time help for winter plowing. Another work session is scheduled for September 10, 2026.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:20pm
